

Affidavit of Unused Accumulated Sick Leave

Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System

502 Deaderick Street
 Nashville, Tennessee 37243-0201
 1-800-770-8277 ♦ <http://tcrs.tn.gov>

If official sick leave records have been lost or destroyed, the employer may certify unused sick leave days to the Retirement System for credit pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-34-604 provided: (1) the employee provides a sworn affidavit stating as nearly as possible the number of unused sick leave days to the employee's credit at the time the employee left the employ of the employer; (2) one current or former co-worker of the employee supplies a sworn affidavit certifying he/she was familiar with the employee's attendance record at issue and to his/her best belief, the number of unused sick leave days contained in the employee's affidavit is reasonable; and (3) the employer certifies the number of unused sick leave days contained in the employee's affidavit is reasonable based on the terms of the employer's sick leave policy in effect during the employee's employment with the employer.

Part I of this form must be completed by the employee/claimant. The current or former co-worker as described above must complete Part II. Parts I and II must be notarized upon signing and the time claimed in Part I must agree with that certified in Part II. The present department head of that employer under which the sick leave was accrued must complete Part III. Separate affidavits must be filed for each employer. Please note that any intentional misstatement constitutes fraud and will cause forfeiture of all related benefits in the Retirement System.
