Any TCRS member who receives a temporary disability benefit from the division of Claims Administration or under a workers' compensation program shall be entitled to establish retirement credit for this period of absence from service. To establish this credit the member is required to make a lump sum payment of the contributions that would normally have been made during the period of absence, plus interest. Employees of a participating local government may establish credit for periods of temporary disability only if the local government has passed a resolution authorizing such service.

No member shall be granted retirement credit in excess of one (1) year per occurrence of temporary disability.
